

GRE Vocabulary

The hill's was so gradual that even those on crutches were able to enjoy the nature's trail.

"We need to be a little more productive and a little less" said the chemistry teacher when he saw that the two-person lab groups had devolved into clusters of five and six students standing around talking and laughing.

The game of poker is all about, manipulating your own body language and patter to lead other players to erroneous conclusions about the cards you're holding.

My late uncle Bill loved practical jokes and absolutely would have approved of the iPod mix my aunt played at the wake, which added a little by segueing from "Amazing Grace" to teh party anthem "Let's Get It Started."

Exercise 3

(c) Adeet Phanse